

Who We Are

Lark Enterprises, Inc. is a nonprofit vocational rehabilitation organization and day services provider, providing job training and social engagement opportunities for people with significant disabilities and other barriers to employment and community engagement. Lark provides people with cognitive, developmental, social, behavioral and mental health challenges a place to demonstrate their abilities, learn new skills, venture into the community and develop connections that may result in integrated competitive employment and/or social engagement within their community.

Mission

The mission of Lark Enterprises, Inc. is to help individuals become self-reliant and integrated into the community through greater independence, choice and opportunity.
